QUEUE

The Chinese government summoned Japan's ambassador to lodge a protest after a cabinet minister visited the Yasukuni Shrine, which it said symbolizes Japanese militarism.

Abe's offering was no different from visiting in person. The paper said his move had hurt the feelings of Asian nations and challenged the current international order by harking back to the spirit of nationalism. The author's name, Zhong Sheng, is a pseudonym meaning "Voice of China", the paper said.

An aerial black and white photograph showing a long line of trucks traveling along a narrow, winding road that has been carved into a steep, densely forested mountain. The trucks are moving away from the viewer, leaving a trail of dust behind them. The terrain is rugged and the vegetation is thick.
